NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Thursday, April 7, 2022:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Steven C. Seeger: Defendant Sell Costume's motion to vacate the default and motion to dismiss (Dckt. No. [56]) is hereby denied. Defendant points to the need for service under the Hague Convention, but this Court already ruled that there was a sufficient basis for service by alternate means. Service under the Hague Convention isn't a viable option when the address of the party is unknown, as Article 1 of the Hague Convention makes clear. Service by publication and by email was a sufficient means to give Defendant notice of the lawsuit. Defendant also moves to dismiss based on a lack of personal jurisdiction. To the extent that the motion purports to be a motion to dismiss, it is late, and defendant did not request or receive permission from the Court for a later filing. So it is denied on that grounds, too. In any event, Plaintiff offered a screen shot of Defendant's website, which provided a sufficient basis for personal jurisdiction. (Dckt. No. [13]–3, at 227 of 382). Mailed notice(jjr, )

ATTENTION: This notice is being sent pursuant to Rule 77(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Rule 49(c) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.
